

History of Romania

In the following infographic the most significant events of Romania are listed, starting with the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, passing through Ceaușescu up to the present day.

1919

In this year the queen Maria of Sassonia signed the treaty of Versailles and after three years she was crowned the queen of the Romanians

1932

Ceaușescu became a member of the Comunist Party.

1941

Antonescu declared war to the URSS sending troops with German troops.

1947

King Michele abdicated and until 1965 was declared the Romanian Popular Republic.

1989

On 25th December 1989 Ceaușescu died, and with him the Comunist party.

1991

The Constitution of Romania of 1991 proclaims Romania a democratic and social republic

2007

In this year Romania became part of the European Union.

