

Environmental aspects

primrose

edelweiss

peony

pike

salmon

trout lynx

bison

29°

Paltinis and Sianaia

They are the most famous ski slopes of the Romania

Varful-Moldoveanu

It is part of the mountain system of the Carpathians and is the highest in Romania

-4°

Targu Mures

It is the largest zoo of Romania and hosts more than 500 animals

Bran and Peles castles

Bran Castle is one of the most famous castles in the world because it was set the novel "Dracula"

Persistent Organic Pollutants

Organic substances that persist in the environment. They are transported across international borders to region where they have never been produced

The Baia Mare disaster

On January 30 2000, there was the collapse of a dam of a clarification basin and about 300 000 m³ of heavy metals combined with sodium cyanide

The Copsa Mica Factory

Carbosin produced black carbon (pigment created from incomplete combustion of coal) that has been deposited for more than 50 years everywhere in Copsa Mica

Desertification

It can lead to poverty, problems of health, to a decrease in biodiversity and forces the population to migrate far away

Socially Useful Educational Activities

Schools allow students to carry out activities that are useful for the environment. Every week, the students clean the beaches from litter

Waste Sharks

Remote-controlled drones that collect waste in rivers. They detect pollution thanks to monitoring sensors. They have a collection capacity of 500 kilos

